

The Golden Ratio

D. Weatherhead

Intro

2x (Ab Gm Gb)

AbGmGb Ab Gm Gb Ab Gm Gb

Verse 1

Curio--si--ty. Always wondering 'bout the symmetry, of things.

Ab Gm Gb

How does a sea star always have five.

Db E Db E

Chorus 1

Snowflakes. Snowflakes are dancing, fractally.

Ab Gm Gb Ab Gm Gb

Six-sided wonders, to infinity.

AbGmGb Ab Gm Gb Ab Gm Gb

Verse 2

Golden ra--ti--o. Divine proportion is there for all to see, in things.

Ab Gm Gb

How does a chambered nautilus grow.

Db E Db E Ab Gm Gb Ab Gm Gb

Chorus 2

Spirals. From DNA to galaxies. Over and over, to infinity.

Solo Break

4x(Db E Eb Gb) 2x(Ab Gm Gb)

AbGmGb Ab Gm Gb Ab Gm Gb

Verse 3

Sacred geo--metry. Cosima showed us the wonderment to see, in Phi.

Ab Gm Gb

How does a bee know a hexagon?

Db E Db

Chorus 3

Dodecahedron. Shape of creation.

E Ab Gm Gb Ab Gm Gb

Whirling out into nothingness. Scattering stardust.

Db E Eb Gb Db E Eb Gb

Ending Break

Whirling out into nothingness.

Db E Eb Gb DbE Eb Gb

Scattering stardust.

Db E Eb Gb Db E Eb Gb

Whirling out into nothingness.

Db E Eb Gb DbE Eb Gb

Scattering stardust.

Db E Eb Gb Db E Eb Gb

Whirling out into nothingness.

Db E Eb Gb Db E Eb Gb

Scattering stars like dust.

Db E Eb Gb Db E Eb Gb

Scattering stars like dust. Scattering stars like dust.

Ending

Ab Bbm Gb Db Ab